In meditation we develop our capacity to turn our whole being towards the Other. We learn to let our neighbour be, just as we learn to let God be. We learn not to manipulate our neighbour, but rather to reverence him, to reverence his importance, the wonder of his being; in other words we learn to love him. Because of this, prayer is the great school of community.

Word into Silence - John Main OSB

Meditation is trying to take that step away from self-centredness to God-centredness. The result is that we find our own place in the world, we find where we should be. And we find our relationships in the right order: our relationships with one another, with creation, and our relationship with God. Talks from - Word Made Flesh 1 - John Main OSB

The Australian Christian Meditation Community (ACMC) is part of the World Community for Christian Meditation (WCCM). Over five hundred meditation groups meet in Australia each week in churches, private homes, hospitals, prisons, universities, retirement villages and with the homeless.

A calendar of events including retreats, community days, quiet days and introductory courses is on our website along with details of weekly meditation groups.

National Retreat

Sunday 9th to Friday 14th July 2017

Laurence Freeman OSB

“Finding Oneself”

“In the tradition that we find ourselves in and that we also pass on, finding oneself and finding God cannot be separated. They meet by touching the ‘otherness’ of everyone that we encounter at all levels. “Who I am” means nothing unless we can fall into the ‘otherness’ of others and then into the all-embracing Other that we name God”
